

VIÑA MAYU - DON AMERIGO

Cabernet Sauvignon (50%), Carmenere (25%), Syrah (25%)
Valle de Elqui - Wine of Chile.

Mayu is the ancient Inca name for the Milky Way constellation. Crystal clear skies above the Elqui Valley, Chile most Notherly winearea are as perfect for growing great vines as for stargazing. Don Amerigo: it was the name of the boat -Amerigo Vespucci- that took in May 1951 the Olivier family from Genoa port in Italy to Coquimbo port in Elqui Valley - Chile. At that time it was the pride of the Italian Navy.

This unique blend of 3 different grapes is produced every year in very limited volume. All the wines are matured in small premium new oak French and American barrels for 12 months. Enjoy it with grilled meats and old cheeses at 18°C.
