

MAYU

Don Amerigo Cabernet Sauvignon Gran Reserva

Varietal Composition: 100% Cabernet Sauvignon

Closure: Traditional cork

Bottle: 750ml, Bordeaux bottle

Origin: D. O. Valle de Elqui

Winery Description: Viña Mayu was established in 2005 by Mauro Olivier who was one of the pioneers planting vines for fine wine production, sourcing the grapes from different places of the valley. Mayu is an ancient INCA name for the Milky Way, literally meaning “river of stars.” The focus of Mayu winery is only the production of Premium wines originated in the Elqui Valley, with unique style and personality.

Harvest method: 100% handpicked into small bins of 15 kg.

Vinification: This unique wine is made with the best grapes of our Vicuña’s vineyard, hand-picked and carefully selected before processing. The grapes are de-stemmed and gently crushed; cold maceration on the skins before the fermentation with selected yeasts. Full malolactic fermentation followed by aging in Premium French oak barrels for 1 year.

Tasting Notes: Deep cherry red in color with complex red and black fruit on the nose and the palate. Well-structured with soft and persistent tannins.

Serving temperature: 18° C (65°F).

Pairing: Pair it with rich and delicate meats like beef or lamb ribs or a juicy steak.

Alcohol: 14.5%
